

Surviving as a "Software as a Service" (SaaS) Startup

By Nick Birch

GRIN Verlag GmbH Jan 2015, 2015. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 211x150x5 mm. This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Thesis (M.A.) from the year 2015 in the subject Computer Science - Software, grade: 1.6, Central Queensland University, course: Arts Administration Research, language: English, comment: Grade has been converted from Australian (81/100) to German (1.6), abstract: Software as a Service (SaaS) is changing the way businesses operate. It's not just a trend: it's a proven way for small business owners to save time and money. We owe it all to the cloud for ushering SaaS into the business world. When examining the basics of running a business, a single subscription to a SaaS app could take the place of an entire department. Small businesses and start-ups can have email, file storage, expenses, purchasing, human resources, collaboration and task management at a lower cost for IT and software. With access to services and software that was once only available to huge companies because of the high cost of infrastructures and maintenance, software services allow a business to cut costs and focus on their product and services instead of setting up elaborate software or delegating...
