When nine years of age, upon the death of his mother, the family became scattered. He attended school at Peacham, Vt., and worked in a general store at Windsor, Vt. He was placed in charge of a book store at Hanover, N. H., by a brother at the age of nineteen. Deciding to go through college, he fitted privately and kept the book store until the end of his junior year, and graduated at Dartmouth College in 1884, with degree of A. B. and final honors in chemistry. He was awarded the Grimes prize for greatest general improvement during course, and was class-day poet. He settled in Chicago in 1884, where he first worked for Jansen, McClurg Co., publishers and booksellers. After a few months he obtained a position with a gas-works construction company as salesman, later Secretary, and finally General Manager. He became interested in several...
