The Apostle John opens the door and invites us into the upper room to relive the words and actions of Jesus. He writes us into the scene and gives us a seat at the table. This forty-day Lenten series is a close reading of the biblical text revealing the significance of the God who kneels for today's discipleship. In this richly textured study of John 13, Doug Webster takes us behind the closed door of the upper room and into the heart of the lavish love of Jesus for his disheveled disciples. This is a book for all Christians who want to walk with Christ on his way to the cross. --Timothy George, founding dean, Beeson Divinity School, Samford University, Birmingham, AL This type of writing frees Doug Webster to do what he does best--enter the biblical text. He doesn't try...
