BLACK BABY WHITE HANDS: A VIEW FROM THE CRIB

Soul Water Rising. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 350 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.0in. July 15, 1968. It is only three months following the assassination of Martin Luther King, Jr. , and the nation is burning. Black and White America are locked in the tense grip of massive change. Into this inferno steps an unsuspecting young White couple. Neither significantly knew even a single African American person while growing up. Now, a child will change all of that forever. In this fateful moment, a Black baby becomes perhaps the first in the history of New Mexico to be adopted by a White family. Here is a brazenly honest glimpse into the mind and heart of that child, a true story for the ages that flows like a soulful river separated from his mother at birth, placed into foster care, adopted, and finally reunited with his biological family in adulthood an astounding journey of personal discovery. Jaiya John has opened the floodgates on his own childhood with this piercing memoir. Black Baby White Hands, a waterfall of jazz splashing over the rocks of love, pain and the honoring of family. Magically, this book finds a way to sing as it cries, and to exude compassion even as it dispels well-entrenched myths. This story is sure to find itself well worn, stained by tears, and brushed by laughter in the lap of parents, adolescents, educators, students and professionals. Here comes the rain and the sunshine, all at once. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
